Henry Brooks was in Concord as early as 1639, and had a son Joseph born there on "12 (2) 1641, that is in all probability, 12 April 1641, but this Joseph is not heard of afterward and doubtless died young. The name of the first wife the mother of all the Children, is not found, nor do we know when she died, but by 1649 Henry had moved to Woburn at which date he had at least one Child who had married. Henry married secondly, at Woburn, a woman named Susanna who is said in Belle Preston's "Bassett-Preston Ancestry (1930), p. 47 to have been a Bradford, widow of Ezekiel Richardson who had died at Woburn on 21 October 1647 Susanna, whatever her maiden name was, died 15 Sept. 1681, and Henry married thirdly 12 July 1682, Annis Jaquith, probably a widow. Six days later, on 18 July 1682, Henry executed his will, stating that he was a Clothier aged 91 years, and providing for his wife Annis, three sons and two daughters, as well as several grand Children. He died at Woburn 12 April 1683 (See also John Adams Vinton, The Richardson Memorial (1876) p. 37

An abstract of the will of Henry Brooks is printed in the Hon. Edward F. Johnson's Abstracts of Early Woburn Deeds p. 31, and Henry names sons, John, Timothy and Isaac (the "youngest" son), son-in-law

John Mousall, daughter Sarah (wife of John Mousall) and daughter Lector; and Isaac, Henry and Miriam, children of son Isaac.

Henry 1 Brooks was selectman of Woburn in the years 1669, and 1671-2

In 1670 his second wife was mentioned as "Goodwife Brooks, an ancient and skillful woman, living at Woburn, famous for attainments in medical science (See the instance related by Gookin; Mass. Hist. Coll, 18168

The will of Henry Brooks is dated 18, July, 1682 and he describes himself as a Clothier, and as "stricken in years," -- his age being then about ninety-one years. He names his wife Annes; son-in law John Mousall; sons John, Timothy and Isaac; and daughters Sarah and Lestor; also grandchildren, Isaac and Henry, sons of his son Isaac, and Miriam, their sister. An abstract of his will is published in the Hon. Edward F. Johnson's, Abstracts of Early Woburn Deeds, (31). H describes his lands with some particularity; to his daughter, Lestor (or Lestor) he gives and bequeaths 5 shillings and no more, because "she hath received her portion already"; "to his Rev. pastors, Mr. Thomas Carter and Mr. Jabez Fox," he gives 20 shillings apiece. Isaac, his son, was sole executor, and his trusted friend, Lieut. William Johnson, he desired should be overseer, and he gave him 20 shillings. He made his executor his residuary legatee, and desired that his two grandchildren should not alienate any of the land he gave them during their father's life.

The inventory discloses about 20 acres of upland on the east side of the highway; 7 acres of meadow, adjoining to said land; 8 acres of meadow in Forty Pound Meadow, given to the Children of Isaac Brooks; about 80 acres of upland on West Side of the highway on both sides of the river, given to the two sons of Isaac Brooks, ~~42 acres; 3 small lots in Woburn Common amounting to about 15 acres; for a division in~~ the great lot in These lands can be traced by deeds for three generations.

There has been much speculation as to the relationship of the two early settlers of Concord, Massachusetts, Thomas and Henry Brooks, particularly as to whether these two men were brothers and as to which of them was the father of Hannah.

Both Henry Bond, Genealogy of The Families and Descendants of the Early Settlers of Watertown (1860) and Charles Edward Potter, Genealogies of Some Old Families of Concord, Massachusetts (1887) make Hannah a daughter of Thomas. The most recent writer to say anything on the subject is John Brooks Threlfall who, in an article on the Thomas Brooks family (TAG 53:94-100), appends a note in which he leaves out Hannah from his list of the Children of Thomas and suggests that she ~~might~~ may have been a daughter of Henry Brooks, also of Concord, alluding to the fact that the will of Thomas Fox, who was the husband of this Hannah, refers to Thomas Brooks as uncle. Mr. Threlfall states that the word uncle was used loosely in the Colonial period and even supposes that it could sometimes mean father-in-law. If so it is rather strange that the Oxford Dictionary fails to include any such looseness in the use of the word uncle, all examples cited having the same meaning as we now attach to the word, except in such phrases as "Welch uncle", which seems to mean a first ~~uncle~~ cousin once removed, or "Dutch uncle", a person soundly rebuking someone for a fault, "Uncle Sam" and "Uncle George", both referring to the government. It is true that words denoting other relationships, "brother", "son", "cousin" and their feminine counterparts did in the 17th Century often mean something different from the current meaning

Henry Brooks was in Concord as early as 1639, and had son Joseph born there on $12^{o}(2^{o})$ 1641, that is, in all probability, 12 April 1641, but this Joseph is not heard of afterward and doubtless died young. The name of the first wife, the mother of all the Children, is not found, nor do we know when she died, but by 1649 Henry had moved to Woburn at which date he had at least one Child who had married. Henry married secondly at Woburn, a woman named Susanna who is said in Belle Preston's Bassett-Preston Ancestry (1930) p. 47, to have been a Bradford, whatever her maiden name was, died Sept. 1681 and Henry married thirdly, 12 July 1682, Annis Jaquith, probably a widow. Six days later on 18 July 1682, Henry executed his will, Stating that he was a Clothier aged 91 years; and providing for his wife Annis, three sons and ~~three~~ two daughters, as well as several grandchildren. He died at Woburn 12 April 1683. (See also John Adams Vinton, The Richardson Memorial (1876 p. 37)

An abstract of the will of Henry Brooks is printed in the Hon. Edward F. Johnson's abstracts of Early Woburn Deeds, p. 31 and Henry names sons John, Timothy and Isaac (the "youngest son") son in law John Mousall, daughter Sarah (wife of John Mousall), and daughter Lestor, and Isaac, Henry and Miriam, children of son Isaac.

The Concord Vital Records (p. 6) show the marriage of Thomas Ffox and Hannah Brooks who were married 13th (10) 1647 i.e. 13 Dec. 1647. This was a second marriage for Thomas Fox whose death is recorded in the same source (p. 8) as Thomas Ffox husband to hana Ffoxe his wife, died 14 April, 1658."

Thomas left a will in which he mentions "uncle Thomas Brooks". (James Savage Genealogical Dictionary of New England 2:196). After the death of Thomas Fox, Hannah went to New London, Connecticut, and there married ca. 1661 Andrew Lester who had been in Gloucester, Massachusetts, before his removal to New London. Charles Dyer Parkhursts manuscript "New London, Connecticut and vicinity, Early Settlers" vol 34 she is called "Ann Henry -- widow of Thomas Fox". Andrew died at New London, 7 Jan. 1669/70 (New London Co. Court Records 2:4) In 1670, as "widow Lester" Hannah was received into Mr. Bradstreet's Church, having come from the Church at Concord (Frances M. Caulkin, History of New London, Connecticut (1895), p. 193) Hannah married thirdly 24 April 1672 Isaac Willey of Charlestown and he died about 1685 (Bradley Bateman Ridge

"The Bateman Genealogy" manuscript, Copy in my possession). Miss Caulkins (p. 287) mentions "Widow Anna Willey sometime wife of Andrew Lester, Sen. deceased." In equating the Hannah or Ann Fox who married Andrew Lester with the Hannath Brooks who married Thomas Fox at Concord, there is but one slight difficulty. Henry Brooks apparently did not know that his daughter had married a third time when he made his will in 1682 or at his age 91 he was forgetful of her third marriage.

On the basis of Parkhurst (3:129 Citing "Mr. Douglas") and the Bassett-Preston Genealogy, the Complete list of Henry Brooks' Children goes as follows:

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers:

Welcome to The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library and to our publication, The Brooks Family Query Exchange.

When Karen Rocher accepted my challenge to help revive The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library, I was excited and enthused. Having edited The Brooks Family Bulletin, I knew what a tremendous effort would be required to revive the publication. But I also remembered the satisfaction I felt helping Brooks researchers.

As Karen and I planned the new publication, we were both inspired with a spirit of purpose and have dedicated ourselves to what we feel is the real goal of a family historical society and publication.

In capsule form, Karen and I want to preserve Brooks information that is likely to be lost, or available to a limited few. It is our hope that The Brooks Family Query Exchange will be a place where information on the Brooks family that has never been published and perhaps would never be published, can be gathered into one historical record.

In the course of a year, four issues of The Brooks Family Query Exchange can generate a tremendous amount of information of historical significance. There are numerous one inch spaces that can be filled with important one-liners and anecdotes. And, of course, room for more lengthly articles as well.

For a family publication to be truely successful, it will be important to remember that our premiere goal is to gather and record for future Brooks' generations what we know now and don't want forgotten.

At this time, our family of subscribers numbers over sixty and is growing daily. Karen and I thank you very much for your support, but we need and want more subscribers. Please send us as many names and addresses as you have on file of Brooks researchers. Send them directly to Karen and she will see that an invitation for membership is received. Also, please don't forget to mention us in your correspondence.

In order to be a historical record, it is important for the bulletin to be placed in the genealogical reference section of local libraries, regional and state historical societies, etc. Karen and I hope that this first volume will be on file in genealogical sections all over the United States for the benefit of researchers today and for generations to come. If you haven't already given a gift subscription and are financially able, we hope you will take time now to make one or two gift subscriptions to your state historical society and local public library or genealogical society. Gift subscriptions are $4.00 each and should be sent directly to Karen. Please make checks payable to The Brooks Family Query Exchange.

Karen asked me to make a special request of you to use our query exchange. Those of you who failed to send a query with your subscription, please do so in time for our August issue.

In our November issue, we would like to do a special on the earliest proven Brooks ancestor each member has. Please send Karen a family group sheet and we will publish this collection.

Karen and I realize we are asking a lot of you; you're our advertising arm, subscription department, writers, contributors, etc. But we hope you're as enthusiastic and ambitious as we are. You're cooperation will assure The Brooks Family Query Exchange's success and survival.

Thanking you again for your support and help, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Jeffrey P. Brooks

FINAL NOTES

Dear Readers:

We're running a little behind schedule but there were some last minute notes I wanted to let you know about before we go to press.

We are short material for the August issue. Please send us anything you might have which you feel could be helpful to Brooks researchers.

Mrs. Wayne Hatz, 233 - 8th Avenue, Braboo, WI 53913 has volunteered to do a name index. This is such an advantage to have an index printed annually and certainly enhances the long-term usefullness of a family publication. Thank you Mrs. Hatz.

Our goal is to go to the printers on the 15th of each month and you should be receiving your bulletin about a week later. In any event, should the bulletin not arrive by the end of the month, please advise Karen or me and we will see that another is sent.

If you have any suggestions as to how we can improve the bulletin, please don't hesitate to tell Karen or me. We're certainly open for suggestions. If you like what you see, spread the word that there's a new Brooks family readership. We need members, last count 80.

Karen will give a treasurer's report in the next issue as to what our receipts and expenses have been to date.

In looking over the membership list, I saw several familiar friends. Thanks for your support again and I hope we can once again have an effective family publication.

A special thanks to Bill Conrath of Douglas Chemical Corp. for his offer to print The Brooks Family Query Exchange on a cost basis only.

And last, a very special thanks to Karen Rocher. Without her dedication and cooperation, without her spirit and enthusiasm, without her support and counseling, I never would have attempted to revive the Brooks Family Historical Society and Library.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey P. Brooks

v. Anna, b. 26 March 1725; m. -----Hoar.

8. Joseph^3 BROOKS (Gershom^2, Thomas^1) was born about July, August, or early September, 1682. This we learn from his guardianship papers among which is a bond:

Know all men by these presents that we Joseph Brooks Senr of Concord, Edward Bridge of Roxbury in ye county of Essex, and Daniel Brooks junr in said Concord in ye county of Midex . . . stand firmly bound and obliged unto James Russell Esq. Judge of Probate for ye county ... dated the 30th day of June Anno Dom 1701 in ye 13th year of his Majesties Reign. The condition of this psent obligation is such that if ye above bounden Joseph Brooks Senr of Concord ... guardian to his cousin Joseph Brooks son of Gershom Brooks late of sd Concord yeoman deces., a minor of eighteen years of age ... (Edward Bridge was a brother-in-law and Daniel Brooks was older brother of young Joseph Brooks.)

Being 18 at this time means he was born between 1 July 1682 and 29 June 1683. He died 17 Sept. 1759 in his 78th year per grave stone in Lincoln. Accordingly, he was born between 18 Sept. 1681 and 16 Sept. 1682. Thus he must have been born in July, August or the first half of September 1682 (Middlesex Probate 2829).

When of Weston, he married 29 July 1725, Jane Jennison of Sudbury, widow of Peter Jennison who died 17 Jan. 1723. Jane had seven children by her first marriage, and she died 16 Nov. 1753 in her 70th year, so was born about 1684. In his will of 19 March 1757 he bequeathed to his "sons-in-law" Peter Jeneson, Israel Jeneson, Robert Jeneson and Samuel Jeneson, to his "daughters-in-law" Sarah Severen, Jane How, and his three"grandchildren"born of his "daughter-in-law" Eunice Richardson deceased. These were his step-children. He also bequeathed to his kinsmen David, Timothy, Daniel, and Josiah Brooks and Anna Hoar, who were the five children of his brother Daniel. Then he bequeathed to the two children of his kinsman Eben Miriam, deceased. This Ebenezer Merriam was apparently his nephew by his sister Elizabeth (Brooks) Merriam (Middlesex Probate 2858).

Child:

Joseph, b. Weston, 14 June 1726, d. 7 Sept. 1749 in 24th year, "only son of Joseph Brooks" (g.s. at Lincoln).

The following article which was written by Miriam Brightman Eddy also appeared in THE AMERICAN GENEALOGIST. This was contributed by John BROOKS THRELFALL.

THOMAS, HENRY AND HANNAH BROOKS OF CONCORD

There has been much speculation as to the relationship of the two early settlers of Concord, Massachusetts, Thomas and Henry Brooks, particularly as to whether these two men were brothers and as to which of them was the father of a daughter named Hannah.

Both Henry Bond, GENEALOGY OF THE FAMILIES AND DESCENDANTS OF THE EARLY SETTLERS OF WATERTOWN (1860) and Charles Edward Potter, GENEALOGIES OF SOME OLD FAMILIES OF CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS (1887) make Hannah a daughter of Thomas. The most recent writer to say anything on the subject is John Brooks Threlfall who, in an article on the Thomas Brooks family (TAG 53:94-100), appends a note in which he leaves out Hannah from his list of the children of Thomas and suggests that she may have been a daughter of Henry Brooks, also of Concord, alluding to the fact that the will of Thomas Fox, who was the husband of this Hannah, refers to Thomas Brooks as uncle. Mr. Threlfall states that the word uncle was often used loosely in the colonial period and even supposes that it could sometimes mean father-in-law. If so, it is rather strange that the Oxford Dictionary fails to include any such looseness in the use of the word uncle, all examples cited having the same meaning as we now attach to the word, except in such phrases as "Welsh uncle," which seems to mean a first cousin once removed, or "Dutch uncle," a person soundly rebuking someone for a fault, "Uncle Sam" and "Uncle George," both referring to the government. It is true that words denoting other relationships, "brother," "son," "cousin" and their feminine counterparts did in the 17th century often mean something different from the current meaning.

Henry Brooks was in Concord as early as 1639, and had a son Joseph born there on "12° (2°) 1641, that is, in all probability, 12 April 1641, but this Joseph is not heard of afterward and doubtless died young. The name of the first wife, the mother of all the children, is not found, nor do we know when she died, but by 1649 Henry had moved to Woburn at which date he had at least one child who had married. Henry married, secondly, at Woburn, a woman named Susanna who is said in Belle Preston's BASSETT-PRESTON ANCESTRY (1930), p. 47, to have been a Bradford, widow of Ezekiel Richardson who had died at Woburn on 21 Oct. 1647. Susanna, whatever her maiden name was, died 15 Sept. 1681, and Henry married, thirdly, 12 July 1682, Annis Jaquith, probably a widow. Six days later, on 18 July 1682, Henry executed his will, stating that he was a clothier aged 91 years, and providing for his wife Annis, three sons and two daughters, as well as several grandchildren. He died at Woburn 12 April 1683. (See also John Adams Vinton, THE RICHARDSON MEMORIAL (1876), p. 37).

An abstract of the will of Henry Brooks is printed in the Hon. Edward F. Johnson's ABSTRACTS OF EARLY WOBURN DEEDS, p. 31, and Henry names sons John, Timothy and Isaac (the "youngest son"), son-in-law John Mousall, daughter Sarah (wife of John Mousall), and daughter Lestor; and Isaac, Henry and Miriam, children of son Isaac.

The Concord Vital Records (p. 6) show the marriage of Thomas ffox and Hanath Brookes who were married 13th (10) 1647, i.e. 13 Dec. 1647. This was a second marriage for Thomas Fox whose death is recorded in the same source (p. 8) as "Thomas ffoxce husband to hana ffoxce his wife, died: 14 april: 1658." Thomas left a will in which he mentions "uncle Thomas Brooks" (James Savage, GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF NEW ENGLAND 2:196). After the death of Thomas Fox, Hannah went to New London, Connecticut, and there married ca. 1661 Andrew Lester who had been in Gloucester, Mass., before his removal to New London. Charles Dyer Parkhurst's manuscript "New London, Connecticut, and Vicinity: Early Settlers," vol. 34, she is called "Ann, Henry --widow of Thos. Fox." Andrew died at New London, 7 Jan. 1669/70 (New London Co. Court Records 2:4). In 1670, as "Widow Lester," Hannah was received into Mr. Bradstreet's church, having come from the church at Concord (Frances M. Caulkin, HISTORY OF NEW LONDON, CONNECTICUT (1895), p. 193). Hannah married, thirdly, 24 April 1672, Isaac Willey of Charlestown and he died about 1685 (Bradley Bateman Ridge, "Bateman Genealogy" manuscript, copy in my possession). Miss Caulkins (p. 287) mentions "Widow Anna Willey, sometime wife to Andrew Lester, Sen., deceased." In equating the Hannah or Ann Fox who married Andrew Lester with the Hanath Brookes who married Thomas Fox at Concord, there is but one slight difficulty. Henry Brooks apparently did not know that his daughter had married a third time when he made his will in 1682, or at age 91 he was forgetful of her third marriage.

On the basis of Parkhurst (3:129, citing "Mr. Douglas") and the Bassett-Preston Genealogy, the complete list of Henry Brooks' children goes as follows:

i. Hannah, also called Anna, b. ca. 1620, d. 1692 (Caulkins); m. (1) 13 Dec. 1647; (2) ca. 1661 Andrew Lester; (3) 24 April 1672, Isaac Willey.

ii. John, b. ca. 1623, d. 29 Sept. 1691; m. (1) Eunice Mousall; (2) Mary Chapman (Parkhurst) or Champney (Bassett-Preston), widow of Theophilus Richardson.

The Brooks Family Query Exchange is a not-for-profit genealogical publication of The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library, published quarterly in May, August, November, and February. Subscriptions are $5 for Volume I. Gift subscriptions are $4 for Volume I. Queries are published free to members.

Statement of Purpose: To assist researchers of the Brooks family and preserve as a historical record Brooks information that is likely to be lost or available to a limited few.

The publishers do not in any way guarantee the accuracy of any information appearing in this magazine.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers:

Our membership now numbers 197 with members in 37 states and 1 foreign country. A special thanks to those of you who have sent a list of Brooks researchers.

I am still receiving Brooks data to be used in the quarterly. Keep up the good work and continue sending me any Brook, Brooke, Brooks, or Brookes information you can find. This information will be used eventually. However, please be sure the material is legible by either printing or typing it. I would also like to specially request that each of you also type or print your queries.

I would like to apologize for the long delay in getting the August issue to you. We have gone through much strife with the former printers. The problem was not only their inability to print the quarterly within a reasonable period of time, but their failure to charge within reason a previously agreed to amount. Therefore, the quarterly is being printed in Fort Scott with only minor changes.

Since Jeffrey will no longer be mailing the quarterly, he is standing by and has offered his help whenever necessary.

Please keep the gift subscriptions coming. Gift subscriptions are only $4.00 for Volume I. The latest gift subscriptions are listed in this issue.

I think you will be pleased with the amount of Brooks genealogy appearing in just this one issue. We are able to bring you a more complete record as to the extent of each submitting member's research by publishing the family group sheet on your "Earliest Proven Brooks Ancestor."

The indexing project is progressing nicely. I think it will prove to be a valuable source, so if you have not already sent in your pedigree charts and family group sheets on your Brooks ancestors I hope you will do so soon.

If anyone has not received any issues, please let me know.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Karen D. Rocher

The dates on which the Gregorian calendar was adopted vary widely: France, Spain, Portugal, and the Netherlands, 1582; the Catholic states of Germany, 1584; Poland, 1586; Hungary, 1587; the Protestant states of Germany and Switzerland, 1700; England and Sweden, 1752; China, 1912; Russia, 1917; Greece, 1923; and Turkey, 1928. Colonies used the same calendar as their mother countries.

The Dutch in New Netherland never used the Julian calendar, having adopted the Gregorian calendar before they came over to America, and they continued using the Gregorian calendar in their private correspondence even after the English took over.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Paul L. Nichols, 1475 Yountville Crs. Rd., Napa, CA 94558 writes, "Thanks to you and The Brooks Family Query Exchange for Aug., 1980, I now have my family group record on Henry Brooks (b. 1591). You have very neatly typed it on pages 14 and 15. I am a descendant of Henry's daughter, Mary, who married 1650 Richard Norcross, son of Jeremiah. Since your family group record on Henry cannot be improved upon, as far as I can see, I have not redone it. So please consider it my entry for my oldest family group record of Brooks. My compliments to you and to John Brooks Threlfall on the August issue."

Jane Brooks Kaskela, 6 Jessica Place, Whitesboro, NY 13492 writes, "I have received a gift subscription to The Brooks Family Query Exchange and am delighted to be a subscriber. This type of publication, I believe, is bound to be helpful to a great many people, particularly in view of the fact that municipalities, in my experience, are increasingly reluctant to do records searching for us amateur genealogists, and personal visits to scattered locations are often out of the question."

Mrs. Norma S. Keating, 4653 Ave. Rio Del Oro, Yorba Linda, CA 92686 writes, "I'm enjoying The Brooks Family Query Exchange very much and have made several contacts with possible kin. It's really exciting to find new family and new information."

Helen B. Todd, P.O. Box 555, Branson, MO 65616 writes, "I have read each issue from cover to cover and really enjoy the publication."

Mrs. Doris F. Macomber, 65 Farmfield St., Fairhaven, MA 02719 writes, "Thank you both so much, Jeffrey and Karen. The Brooks Family Query Exchange is a pleasure to read, and I am so grateful to receive it. I enclose some random notes which you might be able to use."

Miriam Jones, P.O. Box 122, Eagleville, MO 64442 writes, "My second copy of The Brooks Family Query Exchange came today. I am so pleased with the wonderful job you are doing."

Mrs. Phyllis Kendall, Box 667, Crockett, TX 75835 writes, "I'm so pleased to be receiving "Brooks Exchange." It really is an asset for the family, decidedly of a finer quality than most quarterly publications."

Mrs. H. Jack Layne, Central Texas Genealogical Society Librarian, Waco, TX writes, "Thank you for your gift of The Brooks Family Query Exchange. It will be placed in the genealogical section of the Waco-McLennan County Library. Our genealogical collection is one of the largest in Texas; the "traffic" is heavy, thereby making your "Brooks Family" available to many."

NATURALIZATION

Originally, each state handled its own unique naturalization procedure, but in 1790 the federal government passed legislation for uniform naturalization procedures that made white males citizens of every state. The period of waiting time between arrival and application for citizenship varied from two to fourteen years. In 1801, the waiting time was set at five years, the period required today. After 1802, the applicant had to prove that he had entered the country legally and many application forms give information as to the date of arrival and the port of entry. Although the specific place of origin may sometimes appear on the form, it often lists only the country, the largest city near by, or the port from which the boat departed.

BOOK ANNOUNCEMENT

The Bateman Connection written by Bradley B. Ridge is a painstakingly documented record of the descendants of a distinguished New England family with English antecedents. It has been researched and assembled by a scholar intimately associated with that family, who brings to the subject a thoroughly grounded knowledge of genealogy and the behavioral sciences. The volume explores the nature and extent of its dispersal in the mainstream of American life from its base points in Concord, Massachusetts, Killingly, Connecticut and Fairfield (Bridgeton), New Jersey. It also provides a list of references to published English sources by shire on the surname Bateman.

The volume is composed of three indexes: the first index is a detailed listing by given name of each of the known Bateman descendants of William Bateman. Also provided in each case for reference are the names of father, grandfather and great grandfather. The second index is a list of Bateman wives by first name facilitating research from other family groups. The surname of the wife is included where known. The third index is that of the standard cross reference surname variety which is indispensable in a genealogical reference book.

There are some 194 pages of text showing birth, marriage, death and burial dates and places, as well as the available information on names associated with wills, inventories and administrations. The book contains pedigree charts, and concludes with a 63-page two-column surname index.

Martha, daughter of Henry Brooks of Concord, Massachusetts, married Thomas Bateman. There are numerous Brooks listed in the book.

Price is $30.00 postpaid. California residents please add 6% sales tax. You may order this book from the following address: Bradley B. Ridge, Ralling Hall, 1200 Washington Street, San Francisco, CA 94108.

__The Brooks Family Query Exchange__ is a not-for-profit genealogical publication of The Brooks Family Historical Society and Library, published quarterly in May, August, November, and February. Queries are published free to members.

Statement of Purpose: To assist researchers of the Brooks family and preserve as a historical record Brooks information that is likely to be lost or available to a limited few.

The publishers do not in any way guarantee the accuracy of any information appearing in this magazine.

Volume II will be $7.50 for members. Gift subscriptions will be $6.00.

LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers:

We end Volume I with a total membership of 228. I am sure you will find our last issue of Volume I interesting and filled with much useful Brooks information. We all owe a a special thanks to Mr. Ted O. Brooks for __An Index To Marriage Bonds Filed In The North Carolina Archives, 1741 to 1868__ which appears in this issue.

I have enclosed a subscription blank and a self-addressed envelope for renewal of your subscription. I am sorry to increase the cost of the quarterly, but there seems to be no other solution and continue the quality of the quarterly. I hope if we have helped you in Volume I that you will continue to support us by subscribing to Volume II. A subscription to Volume II is $7.50, while you may purchase a gift subscription for $6.00 for a library or individual. A gift subscription will have no membership privileges.

I will need more data for future issues. Please continue sending any information you are able to find through your research. Have any of you considered going to your local courthouse and copying all Brook, Brooke, Brooks, and Brookes marriages or any other records? You could begin with the earliest records and continue through any year, hopefully, to at least 1900. How about visiting your local library and copying all Brooks information from the county histories they may have? If you do this, be sure to copy the book title, author, and cite page numbers. If everyone who was able did this, just imagine the vast amount of information which could be created. The time involved would be quite minimal in comparison with the value of the project.

I would like to make a special request of our members in the northeastern states or anyone familiar with this area. If you would please send me the names and addresses of any genealogical quarterlies in the north and northeast with sizable membership, I would like to place ads in several in order to increase our number of members in this area. Perhaps you know of a genealogical column also, to which I could send a copy of our quarterly for review. Please send the address and name of the person writing the column. Remember, this is your quarterly and I need your help in order to improve it and increase the number of subscribers. With an increased number of subscribers comes the increased possibility of help on your line.

With sincere thanks to all of you for your support of the quarterly, I shall look forward to Volume II. At least I know it will be warmer when I begin Volume II. As I type this the temperature outside is 0°.

Sincerely,

Karen D. Rocher

"On page 24 of the same issue Mrs. William PERRYMAN of Atlanta, Georgia listed the parents of Bradford BROOKS and listed their children. "

"How about that for coincidence? Thanks to "Query."

Children:
1. James b. 26 Dec 1827.
2. Martha b. 13 Oct 1829 in or around Illogan, Cornwall, ENG, christened 8 Jun 1848, d. 15 Apr 1900, Ironwood, Gogebic Co., MI, m. 2 Aug 1848 William Henry KNIGHT, son of Henry and Mary POPE KNIGHT; William b. 1824 Padstow, Cornwall, ENG, d. d. 3 Jul 1893, Ironwood, MI. Occupation - Toolmaker.

*Martha's Death Certificate listed her mother as Ann CARROTHERS.

Ralph Charles KNIGHT was our maternal grandfather. His grandfather, Henry, was born in Ireland and apparently migrated to Padstow where he married Mary POPE 13 Dec 1795. Although William Henry KNIGHT was not born until 1824, our source was confident of the connection. However, since 29 years elapsed we may be missing one generation of KNIGHTS. We have no explanation yet why Martha BROOKS' mother is listed as Ann CARRUTHERS in lieu of WEBSTER on her Death Certificate. This may indicate a missing generation of BROOKS.

William and Martha immigrated from Illogan to Rockland, MI shortly after their marriage and all of their children were born in MI except Edward (b. 28 May 1858 in Illogan) who apparently was born when his mother, Martha, visited "home" in Cornwall in 1858, which indicates that Martha's family remained in or around Illogan when she and William KNIGHT came to the U.S. We will be very grateful if someone can provide additional information on our BROOKS connection. We have additional KNIGHT info on file if anyone is working BROOKS/KNIGHT lines.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to thank Mrs. Wayne Hatz for indexing the first three issues. She did a great job. Since she could not have indexed issue 4, I did so the index could be included in the last issue of Volume I. I hope the index is a great aid to your research. Due to a lack of space I was unable to include first names except for BROOKS and various spellings.

If you have not yet sent your Brooks pedigree chart and family group sheets, please do so soon.

If you would like to publish your Brooks Bible Records in the quarterly, please type or print them and send to me.

Please send subscriptions for Volume II at the earliest possible date. This will alleviate so much last minute paper work. I will appreciate any efforts in this direction.

I hope you have enjoyed Volume I as much as I've enjoyed doing it. We will make even greater efforts to improve Volume II and reach out to many more Brooks researchers. If you know of a newspaper genealogical column, please send me any information on it, including the address.

DEADLINE FOR SUBMITTING INFORMATION FOR ALL FUTURE ISSUES WILL BE THE 15th OF THE MONTH PRIOR TO THE MONTH OF ISSUE. Deadline dates are: April 15, July 15, October 15, and January 15.

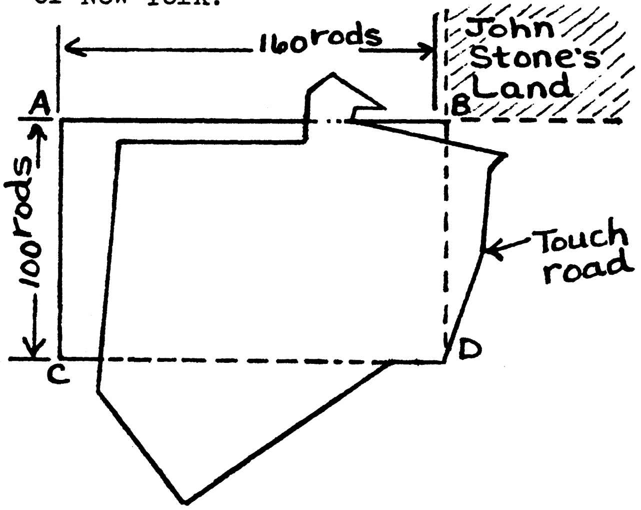
DAVID BROOKS SELLS THE FARM

Geo. Brooks, 5223 Balzer, Lansing, MI 48910

On November 29, 1768, Esquire Thomas Chandler of Chester, Vermont, deeded a 100 acre plot of land to 19 year old, David Brooks, Yeoman, acknowledging payments totaling 20 lbs. Sterling, in compliance with the terms of a one year contract. This deed was recorded by Town Clerk, John Chandler, son of Thomas, on June 18, 1770. Said deed can be found at Volume I, pages 124 & 125, Cumberland County deeds of New York.



This deed describes David Brooks' farm as having true East-West boundaries of 160 rods in length and true North-South boundaries of 100 rods (starting 120 rods South of the Middle Branch of Williams River), with all corners being right angles, thus forming a perfect rectangle. Young David Brooks' farm is shown at left, drawn to exact scale with corners designated as A, B, C and D.

Nearly four decades later, on June 6, 1804, David Brooks sold this farm for $1200 to John P. Williams. The deed for this sale was recorded by Minister Aaron Leland, Town Clerk, and can be found at Book F, Pages 541 & 542 at the Chester Town Clerk's Office. In this deed Brooks describes his property as having fifteen sides and corners, zigzagging, helter-skelter, around in acute and obtuse angles, and somehow showing a growth from 100 to 110 acres. See bird-like figure on scale drawing above.

It would appear that this real estate deal must have resulted from a long day of bartering held at the local Town Pub! The shape of Brooks' farm, originally a rectangle, now looks like too many swigs from a jug of "Old Crow" or "Wild Turkey"! Or is it an American Eagle? Obviously, David Brooks encroached or borrowed some of his neighbor's land in order to create his? wild bird estate -- and one begins to wonder how he got himself out of this gerrymandering mischief? But this wasn't difficult for David. He had observed first-hand, many of the tricks of Thomas Chandler, Chester's First Real Estate Manipulator. Three months after selling his high-flying bird farm to John P. Williams -- Brooks bought back the same Bird for the same price. Unlike Esquire Chandler, David had not developed Chandler's ill-famed "Fast Buck" techniques. This re-purchase deed was recorded by Reverend Aaron Leland on September 12, 1804 and can be found at Book G, page 80 in the records of Chester's Town Clerk.

CONCLUSION

My great-great-great Grandfather, David Brooks, was quite a real estate "Sharpie", but -

HE CERTAINLY WAS NOT A TEA-TOTALER!

I have sometimes wondered if there was a BROOKS connection with a FORD fam in which I'm interested, Richard FORD and w, Elizabeth _?_, of Abbeville Dist., SC. Richard dated his will 11 Apr 1809 and it was recorded 28 Sep 1810 Abbeville Dist. His ch were listed as Samuel, Fanny, Barrot, Mosey, Milly and Richard FORD; Rebekah HOLLAND; Sally Ann NELSON; and Elizabeth TIMS. Witnesses: Christopher and Sarah BROOKS among others.

The will of Christopher BROOKS, Sr. was dated 8 Jan 1796 in Abbeville Dist. and recorded 13 Jun 1796. Witnesses were Richard FORD and William WHITE. They also made the inventory with Alexander DAVIS on 14 Nov 1796. SPARKS
BROOKS
STONE
WARE

I know there are BROOKS in my line somewhere, although I don't know just where they come in - probably around Rev War times, as it was after that, that BROOKS started showing up as a middle name in my SPARKS line. There were about six Matthew Brooks SPARKS' (2 of them my direct anc), also one of my uncles was Frederick Brooks SPARKS.

The first Matthew Brooks SPARKS in my direct line was b 1780 in Pittsylvania Co., VA, m Nancy SUTTON 1802, d 1845 Morgan Co., IL. In the SPARKS fam it was the practice to name ch by giving them a middle name of a fam surname, quite often the maiden name of mor, gmor, etc., so I am rather certain, that being the case, that BROOKS comes into the SPARKS line, rather than any of the others (PRINCE, BRADSHAW, STONE, SUTTON, WARE, etc).

BROOKS
MILLER

Searching for the pars of Jacob BROOKS in Franklin Co., GA (later Jackson and Banks as they were created), as early as 1800, when he received a land lottery grant. He m Elizabeth MILLER. When and where not known. He is not to be confused with Jacob R. BROOKS in the 1820 and 30 GA censuses, who continually moved westward. Jacob d ca 1862, age 91, b ca 1770. Will on file in Jackson Co., GA courthouse. Ch: Zemery (Zemri), Esau, Eady, John, James, Sarah, Moses, Rebecca, Mary, Jacob M., Sultana, Elizabeth, Margaret, David. State Archives show John BROOKS, RS, received bounty grant in Franklin Co. in 1793. No other record of him in Franklin Co. John BROOKS, RS from CT, received bounty grant, shown in a large list of out-of-state RS who received bounty grants in GA. (McCall's DAR Records), but county of grant not given. He cannot be distinguished from several John BROOKS' in GA in this period of time. He could be the one who received the grant in Franklin Co. If so, he completely vanished. There was a James MILLER and James MILLER, Jr. in Franklin Co. in early 1800's. Elizabeth could be the dau or sis, or both, of these MILLER's. Could anyone with BROOKS connections in GA give me some indication of the pars of Jacob BROOKS in Franklin, Jackson and Banks Co's in GA the first half of 1800?

I am researching John A. BROOKS and Susan B. _?_, pars of John Ollie BROOKS, b 4 Mar 1876 GA, d 28 Jan 1946 Blount Co., AL, m 25 Dec 1893 Blount Co., AL Lousana Jane PAINTER, dau of William Thomas PAINTER and Jane BATTLES. I found the fol info at the Polk Co., GA courthouse: A John A. BROOKS gave 2 acres of land to Bethleham Baptist Church 12 Oct 1861. I also found 2 m recs that were very confusing. (1) John A. BROOKS m 16 Aug 1853 Susan ADKINS. (2) John BROOKS m 16 Aug 1854 Susanah DRUMMOND.

I would tend to believe John A. BROOKS and Susan ADKINS were my g-g-gpars, but this seems like an incredible coincidence. My gmor BROOKS seemed to think that Susan was a BOBO.

The 1860 cen of Polk Co., GA:

John A. BROOKS	39m
Susan	20f
Sarah E.	6f
William F.	1m

The 1880 cen of Polk Co., GA:

John A. BROOKS	48m
Susan B.	37f
John O.	3m
Marion A.	6/12 m

The first two children on the 1860 cen could have been m and gone, but what about the difference in ages in the 1880 cen? John should have been 59 and Susan should have been 40. Any help appreciated.

JAMES LINDSEY BROOKS

From Astride The Old San Antonio Road - A Pictorial History of Burleson County, Texas

James L. Brooks was born in Lexington, Alabama on April 16, 1849. He came to Texas in about 1875. He was married to Martha Jane Frasher, who had come to Texas with her family from Mobile, Alabama.

After they married they moved to Milam County. They lived in a community named Maysfield and farmed in the Little River bottom.

To this couple fifteen children were born. However, six of them died at birth. The children who lived included Charlie, Julian, Mamie, Maud, Jack, John, James, Guy, and Jessie.

An epidemic of typhoid fever spread through the Maysfield community in the year 1900. All of the Brooks had the fever. Death again took its toll. Three of the children died: Julian who was 20 years old, Mamie who was 18, and John who was 8. They are buried in the Baptist Little River Cemetery near Maysfield. The mother, Martha Jane Brooks, died in 1905, three weeks after her youngest child was born. She was buried there with her children.

After his wife's death, James L. Brooks moved to Burleson County and settled in the Volney community. He let his wife's sister, Ophelia, (Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kerrigan) rear his infant son, Jessie.

James Brooks lived in Burleson County the rest of his life. He engaged in farming and ranching until he retired and lived with his children. The children of James L. and Martha Brooks who lived to be grown and married and had families of their own were Maud, Jack, James, Guy and Jessie.

Maud married Forest Sexton and their children were Henry, Thelma, Marie, James, and Forest B. Jack was married to Johnnie Lee Yarbough and their children included Ophelia, Francis, Billie Jean, Guy, James and Joe.

James married Leona Jones and their four children were Maurice, Irene, Betty, and Wilma. Guy married Alva Davis and their children included Clifton, Frank, and Joyce. Jessie, who married Veraline Averett, had three children who were Helen, Lois, and Janet.

James L. Brooks died May 8, 1931 following an illness with heart trouble for several months. He is buried in the Harmony Cemetery in Burleson County. At the time of his death he was survived by five children and eleven grandchildren. --Thelma Sexton Fick

LaVERE BROOKS

From Astride The Old San Antonio Road - A Pictorial History of Burleson County, Texas

For many years following the Civil War, hundreds of refugees from the older Southern states came seeking homes on the Texas prairies. Among them were my paternal grandfather, Thomas Jefferson Brooks and his family. He had served three years in the 24th Virginia Cavalry CSA unit, organized at his birth place in King and Queen County, Virginia. He returned to his plantation in Logan County, Kentucky, and farmed there until the move in 1882 to Independence, where he died six years later. My grandmother and most of her twelve children then moved to Somerville (Texas) shortly before 1900, some following at a later date.

My maternal grandfather, James A. Beckway, a carpenter at Galveston and later a building contractor at Houston, emigrated from England to Austin, Texas in 1869. He married Martha Jane Brown in the First Presbyterian Church in 1870. Born in East Feliciana parish, she came as a young child with her parents to Austin in 1852. Her father, James T. Brown was a blacksmith, wheelwright and carriage maker. He built Austin's first fire engine in 1858, in his shop on East 7th Street near Congress Avenue, where it was also stored. He served as wagon master for Flournoys Regiment CSA, and died at the Confederate Home in 1901.

On Christmas day, 1895, in the home of her parents, my mother Mary Ellen Beckway married my father Thomas Hervay Brooks. The house stood near the beach at what is now the parking lot of the Galvez Hotel. While on a visit there in September 1900, my parents, eldest brother Steve and all our relatives were fortunate to have survived the devastating hurricane. After working for several years as a motorman for the Galveston trolley, my father worked as a foreman at Quarries in Millican, Texas, and in the Indian Territory. In 1903, they moved to Somerville where he was employed by the Santa Fe railroad, rising to become an engineer and later yard master before his death in 1926. He donated to the city the land to build the grammar school and the high school. --LaVere Brooks

(LaVere Brooks was born in Somerville the year of the Armistice, and grew up the youngest of seven children during the depression years. He finished Somerville High School, then attended the Art Institute of Chicago for one year, then graduated from Texas A&M where he was enrolled in the Department of Architecture in 1942.)

The following does not seem to relate directly to my family but perhaps it may help another reader:

Benjamin BROOKS, his wife and three children, Jonathan, Joseph, and Betsey, came to Vermillion Township, Erie County, Ohio in 1810. HISTORY OF ARKANSAS BY GOODSPEED
North West Arkansas - 1889
Washington County, Arkansas

Page 919: Thomas BROOKS. This gentleman is one of the most prominent farmers of Washington County, Arkansas. He was born in Hawkins County, Tennessee April 6, 1832, and is the son of William D. and Susan (PRICE) BROOKS, and the granson of Thomas BROOKS, who was one of two of the first settlers of Hawkins County, Tennessee.

William D. BROOKS was born in Hawkins County, Tennessee, was of English descent and a farmer by occupation. He reared seven sons and seven daughters to be men and women, five sons and three daughters now living. The mother was born in Hawkins County, Tennessee, also, and died in that county, on the old homestead where she spent her life. The father died in 1854, and the mother in 1859; both lived to be more than three score years.

Thomas BROOKS (subject) was reared on a farm in his native county, and remained with his parents until twenty-two years of age, or until April 6, 1854, when he married Miss Lucinda MADDOX, a native of Hawkins County, Tennessee, born in December, 1834. Her parents were among the earliest settlers of that county, and both died in Overton County, of that State.

To Mr. and Mrs. BROOKS were born eleven children: Mary E. (wife of Willis RIDER), Laura M. (deceased), Eliza K. (deceased), John W. (deceased), Francis M., James S., Marquis D.L., Susan K., Maggie E., Nora B. and Effie E.

After marriage Mr. BROOKS moved to Newton County, Missouri, but after a residence there of three years he moved to Washington County, Arkansas, near where Brentwood is now located, and lived there until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted in Company B. First Arkansas Cavalry, United States Volunteers. After nine months he was promoted to sergeant-major, and February 28, 1864, he was promoted to the rank of second lieutenant of Company L, First Arkansas Cavalry, etc. Jan. 11, 1865 he was promoted to first lieutenant, and was a brave and gallant officer. He served his country with credit for more than three years. After the war he purchased his farm two and a half miles southeast of Fayetteville, where he owns 250 acres, 165 under cultivation. His wife, three sons and four daughters are members of the Baptist Church; he is a Master Mason, a G.A.R. and is now commander of Travis Post No. 19. Politically he is a firm Republican, having been a Whig before the Republican party existed. He takes an active interest in politics and all public affairs, and was a Republican when it "tried men's souls."

See letter next page.

THOMAS BROOKS

From Mrs. Marvin Kinslow, 1316 Miller Lane, New Albany, IN 47150.

My ancestor, Thomas BROOKS, was a resident of Prince Edward County, Virginia, a soldier in the Revolutionary War and died 3 May 1779. I have ample proof of this as you can see from the (preceding) court records of Prince Edward County, Virginia obtained from microfilm from the LDS Library in Utah and the same account also appearing in the 2nd series of the William and Mary College Quarterly. It appears his wife was named Mary BROOKS.

I have never, in all my research, found the name of my Thomas BROOKS, shown as a Revolutionary Soldier in any book listing Revolutionary soldiers from Virginia. However, there is no doubt he was and the genealogists at DAR National Headquarters in Washington, D.C. have accepted my Supplemental naming Thomas BROOKS as one of my Revolutionary ancestors.

Mary BROOKS, daughter of the deceased Thomas BROOKS, was married to Daniel KELLY in Prince Edward County on 2 Oct 1793 per the marriage records there. Apparently there was a son, Thomas BROOKS, Jr. and three other daughters - Nelly, Agnes and Martha, according to the marriage records and Prince Edward County deed records. This would account for the five children which are mentioned in the court records, left orphans when Thomas BROOKS died.

According to family tradition, which is substantiated by other fragments of data from Prince Edward County, Mary (BROOKS) KELLY died in Virginia and her widower, Daniel KELLY moved (with his children) to Hawkins County, Tennessee. Thomas BROOKS, Jr. also disappears from Prince Edward County, Virginia and various BROOKS families (including a Thomas) appears in Hawkins County, Tennessee about the same time as Daniel KELLY, Sr. There the daughter of Daniel KELLY and Mary (BROOKS) KELLY, namely, Sarah Jane KELLY married my great-grandfather, Philip LOUGHMILLER, as his second wife on 26 April 1831.

The account of a Thomas BROOKS of Washington County, Arkansas, was sent to me by a lady who believed our BROOKS families might be related. I have not been able to prove it yet, but I believe the Thomas BROOKS born April 6, 1832, of this article was a descendant of Thomas BROOKS, the Revolutionary Soldier of Prince Edward County, Virginia and according to the dates given, I believe this would be possible as follows:

I. Thomas BROOKS, Revolutionary Soldier died 3 May 1779.
II. Thomas BROOKS, Jr. (abt. 17 years old when his father died 1779 so born ca 1762). If he married at about 22 years of age, that would be about 1784. One of the first settlers of Hawkins County, Tennessee.
III. William D. BROOKS born Hawkins County, Tennessee ca 1793, died 1854, married Susan PRICE who died 1859 (both being over 60 years of age at death per article).
IV. Thomas BROOKS born April 6, 1832 in Hawkins County, Tennessee married Lucinda MADDOX born December 1834, moved to Washington County, Arkansas and died there.

Mrs. Kinslow would appreciate any help on this BROOKS genealogy.

The BROOKS fam, early settlers of Woburn, MA migrated in early 1700's to eastern CT near Killingly and Pomfret. Did any of these BROOKS fams have a Jerusha? Stephen and Hannah BROOKS of Cheshire, CT had a Jerusha b 1731. (New Eng. Hist. & Gen. Register, Vol. V). The age seems right. BROOKE FAMILY

From The Carmichael Clan, Westbrook, and Allied Families; Compiled by Mrs. Opal C. Phoenix, Atlanta, GA, 1963. Submitted by Ted O. Brooke, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., NE, Marietta, GA 30067.

There are several Brooke Coat of Arms, also Brooke and Brook Arms. Copies of them are to be found in v-1, p-70, of "Prominent Families of the U.S.A." by Burke, and in Burke's "General Armory", and in Jordan's "Colonial and Rev. Families", v-4, 1932, and in "Colonial and Rev. Families of Penn." v-11. Also in "Ancestrial Records and Portraits", v-2. One motto is "Nec Aestu, Nec Astu."

Brooke surname probably originated from living near a brook. It is spelled several ways, as Brook, Brooks, Broc, Brooke, Brouke, Broke, Brookes. The Brooke family was at an early date in the British counties of Suffolk, Essex, and others. Sir Wm. Brooke m-2nd Frances Newton, and had Henry, Lord Cobham, and Geo., Lord Grey of Wilton. These two sons joined Sir Walter Raleigh in an Insurrection against the Queen and were convicted. Henry was pardoned. He did not have any children so George's were his heirs.

Richard Brooke of Hampshire b-about 1520, m-Eliz. Twyne and had three sons, Richard Jr., Robt. of London, and Thomas who m-Susan Foster and had Thomas Jr., Richard and Robert. Robt. m-1st Mary Engham, and had children. He m-2nd Mary Mainwaring, and they had ten children. They came to America with them, and to Maryland in 1650. They called their new home "Dela Brooke Maner". He was Pres. of the Commissioners of the Colony. Some of the descendants of Robt. and his wives are listed below.

BROOKE FAMILY

From William and Mary College Quarterly; Series I, Vol. 11, Pages 210-213. Submitted by Ted O. Brooke, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., NE, Marietta, GA 30067.

The progenitor of this family in Va. was 1 Robert^{1} BROOKE, a justice of the peace for Essex Co. He m. Katherine Booth, who was dau. of Capt. Humphrey Booth, of Lancaster Co., and Margaret Underwood, step-dau. of Capt. John Upton, of Isle of Wight Co. (will dated January 16, 1651), & sis. of Capt. William Underwood, of Lancaster. Issue, 2 Robert^{2} BROOKE, the surveyor, who went with Spotswood, in 1716, on his transmountain expedition, and who in a deed, with Phebe, his w., names his f., Robert BROOKE from whom the land conveyed descended to him as "eldest son and heir." 3 Humphrey^{2} BROOKE, named as "brother" by Robert BROOKE in his will, which said will was dated Apr. 25, 1736. In the Virginia Gazette for Oct. 26, 1738, is the announcement of the death of "Humphrey BROOKE, a merchant of considerable note, and a justice of the peace for King William Co." 4 William^{2} BROOKE, of St. Anne's Parish, Essex Co., who in his will, dated Apr. 4, 1734, names his "brother Humphrey BROOKE." 5 Mary^{2}, who m. Leonard Tarrent, whose will recorded in Essex in 1716, names "father Robert BROOKE."

4 William^{2} BROOKE, s. of Robert^{1} BROOKE, married Sarah, dau., it is believed, of Lawrence Taliaferro, who had a dau. Sarah. Issue, 6 William^{3} BROOKE, who m., it appears, Ann Benger, dau. of Elliott Benger and Dorothea Brayne. 7 Sarah^{3} BROOKE, who never married.

3 Humphrey^{2} BROOKE, of King William Co., s. of Robert^{1} BROOKE, m. Elizabeth, dau. of George Braxton, Sr. The evidence is as follows: In his will 4 William^{2} BROOKE gives certain mountain land, which he patented "in common with George Braxton, Sr., and Jr., and his two brothers" to his dau. (7 Sarah^{2} BROOKE above). And the latter in her will gave the land to her nephew John^{4} BROOKE, son of 6 William^{3} BROOKE. In his will, Robert^{2} BROOKE, the horseshoe knight, made mention of his lot of 1,840 acres in a tract of land called Brookesby, in Orange Co., which he devised to his s., William BROOKE. There is a letter of Edmund Pendleton to Alexander Rose to "let Mr. Robert BROOKE and Mrs. Sarah BROOKE know that on the 4th of Sept., 1764, Mr. Madison intended to divide the Brookesby tract of land according to the General Court's decree." He added, "At the same time, please inform them that if they will each of them pay one-fifth of 140 £ and the costs, Mr. Madison will accept of it, & convey his title to them without further trouble, which terms Mr. Carter Braxton and Mr. George BROOKE for their parts are willing to accept of."

Finally, there is a deed recorded in Orange Co., dated June 6, 1777, for 1/5 of the Brookesby tract, which is described as containing 10,000 acres, formerly patented by George Braxton, George Braxton, Jr., Robert BROOKE, William BROOKE, the elder and Humphrey BROOKE. It is said to have been divided into five parts by decree of the Gen. Court, with a plat and deed recorded therein confirming the same, dated June 7, 1769. The deed in Orange is executed by Robert^4 BROOKE (son of William^3 BROOKE, the s. of Robert^2 BROOKE, the patentee), and John Rowzee, executors, who sold the 1/5 part by direction of William^3 BROOKE, deceased, their testator, for the payment of his debts.

There can be no doubt that in the note of Mr. Pendleton the Robert BROOKE there mentioned was the Robert^4 BROOKE, of Orange, grandson of 2 Robert^2 BROOKE, the horseshoe knight; that Mrs. Sarah BROOKE was 7 Sarah^3 BROOKE, the dau. of 4 William^2 BROOKE, another patentee of the Brookesby tract, and that George BROOKE was the representative and son of 3 Humphrey^2 BROOKE, who had also an interest in the Brookesby tract. But his mother, as appears from Hening's Statutes-at-Large, was Elizabeth Braxton, dau. of George Braxton, Sr. In Feb., 1770, John BROOKE, nephew and heir of Mrs. (Miss) Sarah BROOKE, sold 1,840 acres of the Brookesby tract "formerly belonging to Mrs. Sally BROOKE."

EDMUND PENDLETON TO ALEXANDER ROSE, ESQ.

Dear Sir,

Will you do me the favor to let M^r Robert Brooke and Mrs. Sarah Brooke know that on the fourth of September next Mr. Madison intends to proceed to divide the Brookesby tract of land according to the General Court's decree & desires to know if it may be divided according to a survey made by Mr. William Bell in presence of Mr. Robert Brooke or must be surveyed by the county surveyor w^{ch} will be both troublesome & expensive; at the same time please to inform them that if they will each of them pay one-fifth of £140 and the costs Mr. Madison will accept it & convey his title to them without further trouble, which terms Mr. Carter Braxton and Mr. George Brooke for their parts are willing to accept of. Their answers you will be kind enough to forward as soon as you can to S^r

Y^r ob^t. h^{ble} ser^t
Edm^d Pendleton.

July 9, 1764
To Alexander Rose, Esq.

3 Humphrey^2 BROOKE and Elizabeth Braxton had issue, therefore, 8 George, 9 Paulin, who is named in a patent with George & Humphrey BROOKE. He was possibly under age at the time, but his is not a solitary case of a person who obtained a patent under age. The Braxtons and Paulins were in some way connected. Thomas Paulin was a justice of King and Queen in 1699. In 1706 Samuel Mathews, who married Katherine Tunstall, made a bond to Geo. Braxton, Sr., and Mrs. Elizabeth Paulin in behalf of Mary and Elizabeth Mathews (Essex Co. Records). 10 Humphrey, 11 Richard.

The will of 8 (Col.) George^3 BROOKE (s. of 3 Humphrey^2 BROOKE), of Pampatike, an estate purchased of Carter Braxton, names brother Humphrey BROOKE, to whom he leaves 1,000 acres in Orange Co., son-in-law Robert Price, and dau. Elizabeth Price, dau. Catherine Tunstall, dau. Mary BROOKE, son Richard BROOKE, son William BROOKE, under twenty-one; names brother Richard BROOKE and son-in-law Robert Price executors; dated 25th ——, 1781; proved 13 May, 1782. Teste, Richard Tunstall, Jr., clerk.

The will of William BROOKE, s. of Col. George BROOKE, is among some chancery papers in Williamsburg. It names brother Richard BROOKE and sis. Catherine Tunstall, & the three ch. of my dec'd. sis. Mary Hill, nephew Thomas, dau. Price and two unmarried nieces, daus. of Robert Price. Appoints Richard BROOKE exor. Dated Feb., 1804. Witnessed by H. Young, Charles Smith, George M. BROOKE. Proved at King and Queen Court-house Sept. 18, 1804.

Masters of families: Robert BROOKE of Maidstone in Kent Mercer and Anne, his wife. Ch: Thos BROOKE; Saml BROOKE; Elys BROOK; Dorothie BROOKE; Abra: GALLANT; James GALLANT.

P. 118. Robert BROOKE, of Maidstone, co. Kent, and Anne, his wife, passengers in the Hercules. A license for the marriage of Robert BROOKE, of Maidstone, silk-weaver, and Sarah PIERSE, of the same parish, virgin, daughter of Samuel PIERSE, of the same parish, yeoman, was granted 3 Jun 1618, and the marriage was solemnized 4 Jun 1618, the contracting parties being recorded as Robert BROOK and Sara PEIRSE (Canterbury Marriage Licences, First Series, column 66, and Marriage Registers of All Saints, Maidstone, p. 39). A licence for the marriage of Robert BROOKE, of Maidstone, tailor, bachelor, aged about 25 and Ann DIRRICK, of the same parish, widow, aged about 25, relict of William DIRRICKE, late of the same parish, tailor, deceased, the marriage to take place at Harrietsham, was granted 20 Apr 1621 (Canterbury Marriage Licences, Second Series, Column 144). Robert BROOKE and Elizabeth PECKHAM were married at Maidstone, 19 Jan 1628/9 (Marriage Registers of All Saints, Maidstone, p. 46). Robert BROOK, tailor, and Ann Lawrence, widow, were married at Maidstone, 11 Sep 1634 (i.b., p. 49). A licence for the marriage of Robert BROOKE of Maidstone, tailor, widower, and Mary GARNET, of the same parish, virgin, ages about 28, whose parents were dead, was granted 10 Aug 1637, and the marriage of Robert BROOKE and Mary GARLETT was solemnized at Maidstone, 5 Sep 1637 (Canterbury Marriage Licences, Second Series, column 144, and the marriage Registers of All Saints, Maidstone, p. 51). In the Register, vol. 61, p. 385, in a communication from the Committee on English Research of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Mr. Joseph Gardner Bartlett states that the Robert BROOKE of the marriage licence of the 1621 was the man who came to New England in the Hercules; but the Robert BROOK who married Ann Lawrence, widow, 11 Sep 1634 may have been the passenger in the Hercules, and in that case probably all of the four BROOKE children were children by a former wife, who was, perhaps, the bride in one of the earlier marriages (including that of 1621) given in this note. Savage (Genealogical Dictionary) states that a Robert BROOKES of New London, 1650, was perhaps the passenger in the Hercules. Pope (Pioneers of Massachusetts) says that the Robert BROOKE of the Hercules resided at Marblehead. There seems to be no proof that he remained in New England. If he returned to England, he may be the man whose marriage at Maidstone, in 1637, is given above in this note. The surname CALLANT, of which GALLANT is probably another form, was a common one in Maidstone of that period, and perhaps Abraham and James GALLANT, who are listed among the children accompanying Robert BROOKE to New England, were his step-sons.

This article from Northwest Georgia Historical & Genealogical Society Quarterly, April, 1978, Pg. 2-4, was submitted by Ted O. Brooke, 79 Wagonwheel Ct., N.E., Marietta, GA 30067.

Micajah Brooks was born on Christmas day, December 25, 1761, died June 15, 1863, in his 101 year of life. He lived to see his twelve children grown, some of his sons and grandsons fought in the Civil War. He was wounded at the battle of Cowpens in South Carolina January 17, 1781. He was the son of John and Jane May Brooks and a grandson of John Brooks who was born in England. John Brooks, Sr. came from England with his wife, Susan and six sons about 1730. They settled at the mouth of the James River in Va. In 1735 they moved to Bladen County, N. Carolina, then to Orange, now Chatham Co. N.C. In 1771 John Brooks Jr. and his wife, Jane sold their land in Chatham County, N.C. and moved to Georgia.

Micajah Brooks' pension papers shows they arrived in Ga. in 1775, settling in Wilkes County that was later included in Warren Co. He served in the Revolution War under Capt. Few, George Barber and Col. Elijah Clark in the Ga. troops. When returning home to N.C. he enlisted in Edgefield Dist. S.C. March 1780-81 and served three months as Private under Capt. Bartley Martin, Col. Leroy Hammond in the S.C. Troops. He later served in the Ga. Troops under Capt. John Hill, Joseph Mimms, John Wilson, Stephen Bishop, Samuel Bechman, David Miller, Col. Elijah Clark and was in on an expedition to the Cherokee nation and was at the surrender of Augusta, Ga.

In "Brooks and Kindred Families" by Ida Brooks Kellam, there is a cute story told by Jennie Lynn Wingard of Rockmart, Ga. Her Grandmother, Mary Eudora Hubbard Carpenter, told how Micajah's mother sent him to mill when he was an overgrown boy of fourteen. He met up with some recruiting officers, left his horse and meal and joined the Army and wasn't heard of for seven years. They thought he was dead.

Evidently Micajah was remembering his old home in Chatham Co. N.C. and the girl he left behind and this was an opportunity to get back to the land of his nativity. The trek was long and hard. He stopped in S. Carolina where he had kinsmen living, and enlisted for more service. He then went to Chatham Co. N.C. and married before returning home. He married about 1784, to Mary Hunter, dau. of Elisha Hunter, a German seaman, whose wife was Margaret Stute. They first settled in Wilkes Co., Ga. (Now Warren Co.) then moved to Putnam Co. then to Jasper Co. and finally settling in Paulding Co. Ga. a part of which is Polk Co. He moved to Paulding Co. soon after the territory was surveyed in 1832.

MICAJAH BROOKS - REVOLUTIONARY SOLDIER ... POLK COUNTY GEORGIA

Micajah Brooks, his son, John and wife Elizabeth, daughter, Nancy and her husband Woodson Hubbard received land grants now known as the Everett Plantation in Polk Co. The original grant and deeds are now in the possession of Mr & Mrs James Everett. Some of the original rooms of the Micajah Brooks' home are now a part of the home of Mr & Mrs Everett. These rooms are made of brick that was made near the house, and were not destroyed when the home burned. The deeds by John Brooks, son of Micajah, deeding the property of Hosea Camp, great-grandfather of James Everett in 1849 is also in the possession of Mr Everett.

The cemetery in which Micajah Brooks is buried was given by his son in law, Woodson Hubbard, as a family burying ground in 1850. In 1851 Nancy Brooks Hubbard, wife of Woodson was the first to be buried there. After selling the homeplace Micajah moved to Fish Creek and settled on a hill above a large spring. He lived there with his second wife, Margaret T. Carter. They married June 27, 1839 in Paulding Co. This homestead was sold in 1868 by his widow and son, Green L. Brooks. Micajah and wife Mary had issue, all of whom were married before they moved to Henry County Ga:

1. Elisha Brooks b. 5-27-1785, Wilkes Co. GA m. Fannie Mosely in Putnam Co. 6-2-1814. He was a soldier of the war of 1812.
2. Laney Brooks m. David Griffin, lived in Polk Co. GA.
3. Ruth Bertha Brooks m. Wm Moseley 10-8-1814 in Putnam Co. They lived in Henry Co. GA.

10. Elijah Brooks b. 1792 m. Rachel Brewer, lived in Polk Co. GA.

12. Green L. Brooks m. Lucinda Cheek, lived in Polk Co. GA. They had no children.

Micajah Brooks m. second time to Margaret T. Carter June 27, 1839. They had child 11 and 12.

Micajah Brooks, the last known Revolutionary soldier in the south and one of the last six in the United States, was the only soldier by that name found on the Revolutionary records. For his service he was granted land in Henry Co. Ga. under the land lottery of 1827. (Re: Ga Roster of the Revolution, by Knight) He was Capt. of the 150th Ga. Militia, Warren Co. Ga., the Justice of Peace from 1813 to 1817 (re: Ga. Justices of Peace, State Archives, Atlanta).

While living in Putnam Co. Ga., Micajah Brooks and his daughter, Nancy were charter members of the "Crooked Creek Baptist Church" which was constituted in 1807.

July, 1950, the William Witcher Chapter of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution marked the grave of Micajah Brooks in the Hubbard Cemetery, about five miles west of Rockmart, Georgia. Over one hundred descendants watched the unveiling of the marker that identified the Brooks grave as being the definitely identified one of a veteran in Polk County Georgia who fought in our nation's war for freedom from the mother country.

Present that day were state NSDAR officers, pastors of local Churches and other dignitaries, including Mrs J.W. Pickett, local Regent, a descendant of Micajah Brooks.

Madeline S. Mills, Editor
3348 East 83rd Place
Tulsa, Oklahoma 74137

HELP! HELP! HELP!

Responsibilities have increased upon your editor and I am appealing for help from you. Printing and mailing the exchange is no problem, since you are all so helpful and generous is supplying information for publication. I need one or more volunteers to fill the following requirements:

1. Letters inquiring about Brooks ancestors for which a certain amount of research in past issues of the Exchange must be made, and letters inquiring about our activities. All these letters need to be answered to the best of our ability.

2. Someone is needed to be responsible for indexing the Exchange each issue and putting this index in alphabetical order for typing. The only time that there would be a time limit on this is for the March issue which includes the index. I can type the Exchange, send it to a volunteer for the indexing, and add the index before printing. At least three weeks can be estimated for this project.

Anyone who would like to become more involved with our society can write me. Unless volunteers are found for these jobs, I shall be forced to give up the editorship of the Exchange. Please contact me if you would be agreeable to assuming one of the above.

HISTORY OF UPSON COUNTY, GEORGIA

Abstracted by Karen D. ROCHER, 817 East 7th St., Fort Scott, KS 66701.

p. 885 - William O. BRITT, son of Pinckney Gaston BRITT and Martha L. (GRIFFIN) BRITT, was born 25 Feb 1868, and m on 2 Dec 1891 to Miss Mary Elizabeth BROOKS of Molena, Pike Co., GA. She is the dau of Rhodom Maxie BROOKS (known as Jack) and his wife Mary Frances FULLER BROOKS. He, Rhodom Maxie, was a Confederate soldier serving the entire period of the war; he was the son of Maxie BROOKS and his wife, Lucy THORNTON BROOKS, who were married in March, 1830, their children being Lucy E., Rhodom Maxie (b 30 Jul 1832), Robert H., James M., Thomas J., Louisiana I., Lazarus B., and Rebecca. Maxie BROOKS was the son of Simon BROOKS, b 15 Aug 1766, and Simon was the son of James BROOKS, a Revolutionary soldier. Mary F. FULLER BROOKS was a descendant of John FULLER, of Camden district, South Carolina, a soldier of the Revolution.

p. 885 - 888 - Simon BROOKS was born 15 Aug 1766. In 1795 he married Phoebe BUFFINGTON, daughter of Peter BUFFINGTON and Hannah WAIT (born 25 Sep 1769). (See D.A.R. Records of BROOKS family, Washington, D.C.) They moved to Monroe County, GA, in 1817 from South Carolina. Their ch were Maxey, Ivy, Candace, Hiram, Terrell, Eliza and Simeon, b 27 Mar 1818.

Simon BROOKS was a mathematician and a thinker. Although he lived on a plantation his ruling passion was to invent "Perpetual Motion." He would work at the problem by day and sometimes most of the night; and in the morning would often tell the family, "I almost have it." He died without solving the problem, 19 Feb 1843. Two of his children inherited his inventive genius. Several of them are builders - Hiram being a shipbuilder of Louisiana.

His youngest son, Simeon, was born 27 Mar 1813. He married Louisa Clements BUTTS (daughter of Capt. Henry BUTTS and Mary SLEDGE - formerly of Hancock Co., GA 26 Sep 1839. He took his bride to his home in Monroe County. Two children were born to them, Mary Ann BROOKS, 13 Jul 1840, and Simon Henry BROOKS, 12 Mar 1842. Mary Ann BROOKS was a beautiful woman with light curly brown hair, large brown eyes, perfect teeth and a faultless complexion. She was educated at the Forsyth Collegiate Institute (Monroe Female College) now Bessie Tift College among the oldest institutions for learning in the world (owing to the delay of this Baptist College, Wesleyan College of Macon, GA, was the first College in the world to give a diploma to women.)

Mary Ann BROOKS was a gifted artist and a student of Astronomy, an almost unheard thing for a woman to be interested in. She had many suitors but she married Colonel Stephen Zellars HARNESBERGER of Lincoln Co., GA, 1 Mar 1866. She was engaged to him for six years, the marraige being delayed by the Civil War. They had two children: Mary Lou HARNESBERGER and Harvey Flew HARNESBERGER. Colonel Stephen Zellars HARNESBERGER died 21 Feb 1871. Mary Ann BROOKS HARNESBERGER died 6 Sep 1878. She was a gentle, cultured Christian woman, teaching her children the Bible and leading them to God in daily prayer with them.

Louisa Clements BUTTS BROOKS, the widow of Simon BROOKS, who died 19 Feb 1843, married the second time James Madison BARRON. Their three children were Louise Judson BARRON, Lizzie Rebecca BARRON and Sidney K. BARRON. She died 22 Mar 1896.

Simon Henry BROOKS was educated at Collinsworth Institute in Talbot Co., GA. His last there was in 1860. He had an exceptionally brilliant mind and no doubt would have achieved distinction if the Civil War had not occurred with all its horrors. He enlisted on 18 Oct 1861, and was mustered out in Appling Co., GA, about the 21st day of October. His was Company I, 23 GA Regt., John F. LEWIS, Capt., and George F. HARRISON, Col. He surrendered at Greensboro, N.C. 26 Apr 1865. Returning to GA he married Harrie LEWIS, born 25 Feb 1852 (daughter of Capt. George Jackson LEWIS and Emily McFARLAND) 11 Nov 1860. The children of this union were Lee J, born 9 Oct 1869; Charles Spurgeon, b 18 Jul 1872; Lewis Simon, b 29 Jan; Marcus Leonard, b 17 Jun 1883.

Marcus Leonard BROOKS married Annie Lawson FERGUSON (b 10 Feb 1886) on 19 Jan 1902. Their children are Thomas Leonard, b 15 Mar 1903; Lucy Evelym, b 13 Sep 1904, d 2 Feb 1910; Anna Ruth, b 12 Mar 1906; Willie Florine, b 10 Sep 1907;

Floyd Felton, b 27 Apr 1909; Achsah Lawson, b 15 Dec 1910; Velma Vernall, b 5 Jan 1912; Verna Mae, b 15 Oct 1913.

Thomas L. BROOKS, son of Marcus Leonard BROOKS married Myrtle GARNER, 1 May 1925. Their son Robert Eugene was born 15 Mar 1927.

Anna Ruth BROOKS, daughter of Marcus Leonard BROOKS, married Emmett TOMLIN, 11 Nov 1928.

Charles Spurgeon BROOKS went to Tennessee to line and married Anna CROCKETT in 1903. Anna CROCKETT is the great-granddaughter of David CROCKETT, the famous huntsman, warrior and congressman. Five children were born to them: David Crockett, Helen, Harold, Ruth and Evelyn. Charles Spurgeon BROOKS was a contractor and a builder. He died 13 Jun 1926, and is buried at Greenbrier, Tennessee.

Lewis S. BROOKS married Mattie REEVES (born 15 Mar 1883) on 22 Feb 1903. They have no children.

Hattie LEWIS, wife of Simon Henry BROOKS, died 1 Oct 1901. Simon Henry BROOKS lived to a ripe old age. He died 6 Jan 1924, among the last of the Confederate veterans.

JOHN NATHANIEL BROOKS of MISSISSIPPI

Submitted by John P. FRAZIER, 611 Cypress St., Pittsburg, TX 75686.

NOTE: The following is a letter written after the death of John N. BROOKS. The letter is written by his Captain, W. B. JOHNSON. This captain was also from Newton Co., MS, as stated in a legal and sworn document dealing with Milly BROOKS (wife of John N. BROOKS). John N. BROOKS died 1 Feb 1863.

"John N. BROOKS, private of Capt. W. B. JOHNSON company D., 3 Regt. Miss. Vols. was enlisted by Col. G. H. MELLON of the CSA at Vicksburg on or about the first day of Aug. 1862, to serve for three years. He was born the state of __________ is forty years of age, six feet high, dark complexion dark hair, blue eyes, by occupation when enlisted a farmer. He has pay due him from the first day of August 1862, to the first day of Feby, 1863. Also commutation of the same length for clothing. This is correct to the best of my belief. My Book was all lost at the Baker's creek fight and I have had to make this out of my recollection which I think is correct or very near it. I don't think he was indebted in any way to the Confederate States. This 6th day of Sept. 1864.
